

WORCESTER CATHEDRAL

Services and Music May 2024

May is the month when Easter gives way to Ordinary Time, just as spring hopefully gives way to summer. The season of Easter, in which we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ, lasts for fifty days all the way until Pentecost. But from the fortieth day onwards there is a definite change of gear. Ascension Day marks the moment of Jesus' return to heaven, to the right hand of the Father. There is then a period of watching and waiting ahead of the feast of Pentecost and the sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church.

Although this marks the end of the Easter festivities, of course every Sunday is a little Easter, a celebration of the resurrection. As soon as Easter and Pentecost are behind us, we find ourselves first at the great feast of Trinity and then the only slightly lesser feast of Corpus Christi, both celebrated in the western Church since the high Middle Ages. Trinity Sunday in particular sums up everything that has gone before in Christmas, Easter and Pentecost – it sends us on our way, as it were, with a spring in our step as we move forward joyfully into the long and glorious summer!
